Simon Avend, a South African living in Australia, can be unruly. He often sets out to exotic destinations, indulging his desires in places like Bali, Istanbul, Tokyo, and the Wild Coast. But along the way unsettling memories arise, of people and also places, especially the cattle farm in the Eastern Cape where he grew up. He approaches a therapist to help him make sense of his past, a process that leads them both on a journey of discovery. When circumstances bring Simon back to South Africa, he must confront the beauty and bitterness of his country of birth, and of the people to whom he is bound. Green as the Sky Is Blue is a bold, unflinching exploration of sexuality, intimacy, and the paradox that lies at the heart of our humanity.
De Afrikaanse poëzie in duizend en enige gedichten Macmillan

Sarah Lotz, internationally acclaimed author of The Three, and Day Four, describes The Mark as: "An entrancing, truly original novel packed with twists you won't see coming and a heroine that breaks the mould. Unputdownable." In the future, the world has flipped. Ravaged by the Conflagration, the State of Mangeria is a harsh place where the sun beats down, people's lives are run by a heartless elite and law is brutally enforced. A mark at the base of the spine controls each person's destiny. The Machine decides what work you will do and who your life partner will be. Juliet Seven - "Ettie" - will soon turn 15 and her life as a drudge will begin, her fate-mate mate will be chosen. Like everyone else, her future is marked by the numbers on her spine. But Ettie decides to challenge her destiny. And in so doing, she fulfills the prophecy that was spoken of before she even existed.

Elmien droom daarvan om eendag ná skool 'n dokter te word. Maar waar sy vandaan kom, is dit 'n gróót droom. Hoewe 717 is die amptelike naam van die plakkerskamp waar sy die aantreklike Ruan ontmoet en uit die nare oom Bok se vatterige kloue moet probeer bly. 'n Onvergeetlike Aspoester-verhaal wat wys dat drome kan waar word ...
Zackie Mostert en die meisie-moles Word to the World Ministries
In a language rich with innuendo, textual references and streams-of-consciousness a South African boy in diaspora tells his story in the first person singular and takes the reader along up to his very last breath.

A powerful contemporary retelling of Heart of Darkness. One rainy night in Australia, Marlouw's sister phones with the request that he fetch her son 'from that bloody country'. And Marlouw, with his club foot and hardened spirit, believes it is his fate to carry out this instruction. Drenched in sweat after an ominous flight, his exodus takes him through a South Africa where poverty is rife, infrastructure has collapsed, AIDs has become widespread, and corruption reigns. He is told: 'the whites who've stayed on, stay because they're not able to leave'. Yet still he journeys deeper into the unknown - - past the suffering masses alongside the road to the outer darkness of the rural areas. There are rumours that Koert is on the old family farm, now in the possession of the family's former workers. That there, guarded and isolated, he has built himself a powerful empire as the King of Meat. Here, on Ouplaas, at the end of Marlouw's terrible journey, the heart of terror is cut open ...

Hierdie is 'n aand vir laastes. 'n Aand om jou kopie van The Catcher in the Rye in jou rugsak te druk en afskeid te neem van die huis waar jou pa elke aand te diep in sy whiskeyglas kyk. 'n Aand om die lysie uit te haal met die name van almal by die skool wat dink jy's 'n freak. 'n Aand om die donker ding binne-in jou beter te leer ken. Mōre gaan ek 'n gun saamvat skool toe.

New Africa Books

A popular anthology of contemporary short stories by famous writers including D.J. Brindley, John Wain, James Thurber, Doris Lessing and Roald Dahl.

Shaka Rising Penguin Random House South Africa

Thomas is moving to a new house, and he hates the idea with a passion. Even though his stepmother, Louisa, is quite cool, having a new half-brother or -sister is something Thomas is definitely not looking forward to. To make matters worse, the house they are going to live in is an ancient Victorian place.

The Quickening Pulse

Penguin Random House South Africa

Griet Swart is a recently divorced, 30-ish woman living out of a suitcase in a borrowed flat in Cape Town, South Africa. A collector of fairy tales for a children's book publisher, Griet soon finds herself viewing her own life in storybook terms. While trying to restart her life with the help of family, friends, and an enigmatic therapist, she turns for comfort to the wisdom of the folktales she inherited from her Afrikaner grandparents. Leipoldt Penguin Random House South Africa
Die dag van die afrigtingskamp het uiteindelik aangebreek! Maar een van die ruiters in Anri-hulle se groep is 'n regte waaghals wat daarvan hou om die reëls te verbreek. Sal Anri-hulle kan keer dat sy haar toekoms as kampioen-ruiter verwoes?
Flame of Truth Penguin Random House South Africa
Discovering his rare ability to summon demons from another world, blacksmith's apprentice Fletcher practices his skills at a magical academy where he prepares to serve his Empire in the war against the Orcs. A first novel.
