Ruined - priceless

photographs, precious letters from war, the class project for Veterans Day, and Granddaddy Meek's special presentation to Brennan's class. All ruined by a bully. However, Granddaddy Meek never wastes an opportunity to teach a life lesson. On a surprise trip, Brennan learns the branches of the military, a secret code used by brave POWs, and how to successfully battle a bully.

You went off to war with clear cut orders. You executed the same with courage and gallantry. Then you came home. There were parades in some cases, in others what you received was the disdain of people who couldn't understand the hell you went thru just to make it back. Now you're back in a world that you have a hard time understanding, surrounded by people who don't understand you. This book will remind you that GOD still cares and HE understands. This devotional will break it down into terms that as a Service Member you will understand. It will take you to a place, where in the midst of the chaos we face and in the middle of the noise, we are reminded that HE heard us in the battlefield and brought us home. It will remind you, that you're loved and that you matter. Rev Ch. Kenneth C. Torres served for 25 years in combat medicine. He has severe PTSD, a TBI and 6 concussions. He has flashbacks, nightmares and panic attacks. With all those shortcomings, he pastors Veteran's Church next to his wife Zulma and His service dog, Axel. Telling his brothers and sisters, that there is hope after the battlefield. They live in west Melbourne, FL. He has 3 daughters, JC, Zulmarie and KC who are his pride and joy. He can

A Patriot's Devotional is a collection of daily devotionals that provide inspiration and encouragement for everyday living. The book is the perfect companion for time alone with God, whether for morning or evening prayer. Each devotional of A Patriot's Devotional blends references to history, culture, current events, music and much more with Scripture and personal insight. Written by Carroll Walker, a patriot and veteran of the U.S. Army who served in the Vietnam conflict and is also chaplain of the Jeff Davis County Veterans Association in his hometown of Hazlehurst, Georgia, the book shows how each day's reading fits into our lifestyles and provides the pathway to strengthen our faith for a deeper relationship with God. Carroll Walker is a lifelong resident of Jeff Davis County, Georgia. After graduating from Jeff Davis High School, he spent two years in the U.S. Army including time in Vietnam. After his time in the Army, he began working for and later retired from the U.S. Postal Service as a rural letter carrier. He currently serves as chaplain of Jeff Davis County Veterans Association, Inc. In his spare time, he enjoys woodworking, gardening and fishing with a special emphasis on fishing. He is married to the former Susan Taylor of Alma, Georgia. He has two sons, four granddaughters and one grandson. He and Susan are members of Lighthouse Christian Fellowship in Hazlehurst.

An introduction to the history, purpose, and observance of Veterans

Day, when we honor men and women who have served in the United States military. Veterans Day Ceremonies, November 11, 1989 Crabtree Publishing Company

Behold is a word used over a thousand times in the Bible to describe "take notice" and "pay attention" because something is being communicated that might normally be missed. The Holy Spirit inspired Scripture (2 Timothy 3:16) and He is our Teacher of Scripture (John 14-16). Therefore, if our Teacher tells us to "behold" something, He intends to reveal something to us that would otherwise be hidden. This 70 day devotional is not a subject study on the word "behold" in the Bible. Rather it is about seeing on a completely different order of magnitude. It is about beholding Jesus as the Life, Truth, and Way. This "beholding" is supposed to be the normative relationship between the believer and the Holy Spirit. To behold the Truth from Scripture is a work of the Spirit in the believer. It comes by a Life-to-life relationship with the Spirit that started when the person received Christ. From that beginning onward there is supposed to be an inward dynamic where the Spirit "shows" you Jesus by Life. It is how He tutors your soul.

In God We Still Trust

"Veterans Day is a holiday celebrated every November 11 in the United States. It honors military veterans who served in the U.S. Armed Forces. People often participate in a moment of silence to honor veterans and their service to the country. People also decorate with American flags and watch parades honoring the Armed Forces. Learn the ways people celebrate this special day and similar holidays in countries around the world"--

A Patriot's Devotional
Designed especially for older adults and written by older adults, these large print devotions for all 365 days of the year are meant to encourage, inspire and engage those living out their Christian faith in their later years. With only month and day noted at the top of each devotional page, this book can be used in any year and can be started at any point in any given year. Each devotion begins with a reading from Scripture related to the theme for the day, followed by a reflection by the author based on that reading. A prayer summarizes the lesson of the reflection, a suggested activity is included to express the message of the devotion in daily living and additional Bible passages are listed for further reading. ...These large-print devotions written by seniors for seniors are specially designed to keep you hope-full in your living for the Lord. Our later years are not meant to be spent regretting what we can no longer do, but rejoicing in what we do still get to do by God's grace and favor, which we perhaps were not able to do in other stages of our lives. The later years of life continue to have the capacity to be vibrant and fulfilling as we faithfully serve the Lord. The devotions on these pages represent some of the best and most beloved reflections from Hope-Full Living over the past several years. Through these devotions, the reader is encouraged to live life to the fullest in whatever way God has designed that life to be in the unique situations and experiences in which older adults find themselves. Suggested activities or thoughts to ponder based on the themes of each day's devotion are included to provide inspiration for application of faith into daily living in small but meaningful ways. And each devotion ends with suggested Scripture readings to help the reader dig deeper in the Word to be strengthened and sustained throughout the day. Here is a collection of some of the most beloved devotions from our quarterly publication, Hope-Full Living, for every day of the year. Written by older adults for older adults, this large print edition of reflections is specially designed to encourage, inspire and engage those living out their faith in their later years. God desires that his faithful have a life that is enriched by him, and it is my prayer that these devotions enrich you in your faith and service to the Lord. Enjoy each of these moments with God as you are filled full with hope in Christ each day of life that he grants to you.
