Magic Man Sweetwater Books

Eleven-year-old Mattie Marvelwood comes from a family of traveling performers. Her dad is an illusionist; her mom is a fortune-teller; her brother has a vanishing act; and she herself is a mind-reader. But the Marvelwoods have a deep secret. The acts they perform at carnivals, fairs, and circuses are not just acts. Their powers are real. In all their wanderings, the Marvelwoods have never met another performer with gifts like theirs—until they join Master Morogh’s Circus of Wonders! But it turns out that Master Morogh’s true talent is stealing the gifts of others. When he steals Mattie’s brother’s vanishing ability, the family has a big decision to make. Do they run, leaving Bell’s gift behind to save the rest of them, or risk exposure by trying to beat the duplicitous ringmaster at his own game?

Mixed Magics Corgi Childrens

In three wild and wacky tales, find out what can happen when...
...An old armchair that you've finally decided to get rid of comes to life -- and has a definite attitude. It thinks it can rule the entire household! ...Not one, but four grannies come to take care of you and your stepsister. You manage to work some magic, and are granted three wishes -- but soon fear you may get what you wished for! ...The rudest uninvited house guest comes to visit -- and won't leave! He insults every person who comes his way. But when he starts in on the furniture, that's the last straw. Even the furniture thinks so! The bestselling illustrator of "Harvey Potter's Balloon Farm" teams up with a Nobel laureate in this buoyant fantasy of a boy who brings home a wave. Stunning oil paintings shimmer with light and laughter in this unexpected, unforgettable tour de force.

Stopping for a Spell Houghton Mifflin Harcourt

After learning of his parents' plans to divorce and moving with his mother and sister to a rough urban neighborhood, thirteen-year-old Toby and his new friend, a homeless man, become magically connected to an ancient Iroquois Indian hero and help the community stand up to a violent gang.

How High?--That High Newman Springs Publishing, Incorporated

Diane Williams, an American master of the short story who will “rewire your brain” (NPR), is back with a collection in which she once again expands the possibilities of fiction. These stories depict ordinary moments—a visit to the doctor’s office or a married couple’s hundredth dance together—but within the quotidian, Williams delivers a lifetime of insecurities, lusts, rejections, and revelations, making her work equally discomfiting and amusing. With unmatched wit in every sentence, Williams captures whole universes in a story, delivering visionary insights into what it means to be human. Williams’ devotees will be newly enthralled by her elegantly strange, bewitching stories in How High? — That High. Those who have yet to meet “the godmother of flash fiction” (The Paris Review) will find an extraordinary introduction in these pages.

Magic Man, Magic Man Harper Collins

Mixed Magics (The Chrestomanci Series, Book 5)

HarperCollins UK

A lonely young woman gets too close to her charismatic female student in this propulsive debut, culminating in a dangerously debauched Midsommar’s Eve. LONGLISTED FOR THE CENTER FOR FICTION FIRST NOVEL PRIZE AND THE VCU CABELL FIRST

NOVELIST AWARD • “Memorable and meaningful.”—Claire

Messud, New York Times bestselling author of The Burning Girl
Lauren Cress teaches writing at a small college outside of Washington, DC. In the classroom, she is poised, smart, and kind, well liked by her students and colleagues. But in her personal life, Lauren is troubled and isolated, still grappling with the sudden death of her parents ten years earlier. She seems to exist at a remove from everyone around her until a new student joins her class: charming, magnetic Siri, who appears to be everything Lauren wishes she could be. They fall headlong into an all-consuming friendship that makes Lauren feel as though she is reclaiming her lost adolescence. When Siri invites her on a trip home to Sweden for the summer, Lauren impulsively accepts, intrigued by how Siri describes it: green, fresh, and new, everything just thawing out. But once there, Lauren finds herself drawn to Siri’s enigmatic, brooding brother, Magnus. Siri is resentful, and Lauren starts to see a new side of her friend: selfish, reckless, self-destructive, even cruel. On their last night together, Lauren accompanies Siri and her friends on a seaside camping trip to celebrate Midsommar’s Eve, a night when no one sleeps, boundaries blur, and under the light of the unsetting sun, things take a dark turn. Ultimately, Lauren must acknowledge the truth of what happened with Siri and come to terms with her own tragic past in this gorgeously written, deeply felt debut about the transformative relationships that often come to us when things feel darkest. Praise for The All-Night Sun “Inventive and luminous . . . Zinna’s intimate debut dazzles with original language, emotional sentience, and Swedish folklore as it plumbs the depths of grief, loss, and friendship . . . Zinna reaches an inspired emotional depth that, as the title signifies, never stops blazing.”—Publishers Weekly (starred review)

On Fire Harper Collins

Killing a bird with his slingshot as a boy, William Bellman grows up a wealthy family man unaware of how his act of childhood cruelty will have terrible consequences until a wrenching tragedy compels him to enter into a macabre bargain with a stranger in black. Reprint.

Attitudes Worldedge Press, Incorporated

Mabble Merlin wears a pointed purple hat decorated with twinkling stars. With eyes like piercing x-rays, Miles reckoned he looked like the man who knew everything. But Mabble turns out to be the wildest, wackiest and most wizardly shopkeeper you could ever hope to meet, and everything in his shop is odd and magical.

The Musty Old Magical Curiosity Shop Penguin

This is a volume told by several other storytellers, the base story being that of the Magic Man, but including sequences by the other characters, including the author. It visits venues throughout the world with numerous notable characters, introduces people everyone knows, and evolves to a curious conclusion.

Bellman & Black University of Toronto Press

Sneaking into a creepy, old house, Christopher, Charlotte, Alexander and Emily are drawn into a fast-paced adventure, to combat the evil Mr Grump and his weird friends, and to return the great Sceptre of the Magical Kingdom to the enigmatic Magic Man. A magic carpet, an evil curse, the power of the name of the Magic Man, and a variety of good and bad talking animals, are only some of the ingredients in this fascinating adventure story, as the children discover a new world, bordering on their own, where the Magic Man rules. Rescued, by his mysterious power, from many dangers and attacks, the children restore the Sceptre to its proper owner, confront the wicked Mr Grump and his companions, and help to restore peace and harmony to their dying village and the world beyond. But this is only the beginning. In the following books, they return to help the Magic Man, in the fight against the evil Grumps, meeting many more wonderful characters, and sharing in a host of magical adventures.

The Magic Toybox Harper Collins

Glorious re-jacket of the story collection set in the worlds of Chrestomanci.

Deep Wizardry HarperCollins UK

During a summer vacation at the beach, thirteen-year-old wizard Nita and her friend Kit assist the whale-wizard S'ree in combating an evil power.

The First 50 Pages Berkley

"Again and again. . . I find myself being a Mrs. Bridge evangelist, telling them that it's a perfect novel, and then pressing copies on them. . . What writing! Economical, piquant, beautiful, true."

—Meg Wolitzer, The New York Times In Mrs. Bridge, Evan S. Connell, a consummate storyteller, artfully crafts a portrait using the finest of details in everyday events and confrontations. The novel is comprised of vignettes, images, fragments of conversations, events—all building powerfully toward the completed group portrait of a family, closely knit on the surface but deeply divided by loneliness, boredom, misunderstandings, isolation, sexual longing, and terminal isolation. In this special fiftieth anniversary edition, we are reminded once again why Mrs. Bridge has been hailed by readers and critics alike as one of the greatest novels in American literature.

The All-Night Sun Astra Publishing House

When a teacher at an English boarding school finds a note on his desk accusing someone in the class of being a witch, magical things begin to happen and an Inquisitor is summoned.

So You Want to be a Wizard Bookdash

The title of this work, Attitudes, is intended to sum up the link that connects the stories, or, put another way, the thread running through them. Each story deals with the attitude of the writer (or one or more of the characters) towards a different subject.

The Magic Within Simon and Schuster

With the help of the elves, Kris Kringle and his wife, Rebecca, deliver toys to all the children in the world on Christmas Eve.

Impulse Archaeology Harper Collins
