Innovative Language

Adult Language Education and Migration: Challenging Agendas in Policy and Practice provides a lively and critical examination of policy
and practice in language education for adult migrants around the world, showing how opportunities for learning the language of a new country both shape and are shaped by policy moves.
Language policies for migrants are often
controversial and hotly contested, but at the same time innovative teaching practices are emerging in response to the language learning needs of today's mobile populations. This book:

analyses and
challenges language
education policies
relating to adult
migrants in nine countries; provides a comparative study with separate chapters on policy and practice in each country; focuses on Australia, Canada,
Spain (Catalonia),
Finland, France,
Ireland, the Netherlands, the UK
and the US. Adult
Language Education
and Migration is essential reading for practitioners, students and researchers
working in the area of language education in migration contexts.

From Carnegie Medal finalist Jenny Valentine comes a bold new story about the boundlessness of love and second chances, perfect for fans of David Levithan's Every Day. Jude doesn't believe in love, or magic. Life is little more than ordinary. That is, until Jude's mother loses her job and moves them to a little town by the sea to live with Henry Lake--an eccentric old man with rooms to rent. Henry is odd, the town is dull, and worst of all, Jude feels out of place and alone. So when Novo turns up in the house across the street, dressed all in black and looking unbearably handsome, Jude's summer takes an immediate turn for the better. But Novo isn't all that he seems to be--or maybe he's more than Jude can possibly understand. Novo is pure magic--someone who can bend and stretch the bounds of time. Someone who wakes up in different places and at different points in history with utter regularity. He knows that each Now is fleeting, that each moment is only worth the energy it expends on itself, and that each experience he has will be lost to him before long. But Jude and Novo form a bond that shifts reality for both of them. Jude begins to question what forever really means--only to find out that Novo knows that forever isn't real. And when things go horribly wrong, Jude and Novo are faced with an impossible question that may change both of their lives irreparably--what is worth sacrificing for love? A stunningly written, compelling exploration of the universality of love--and what it means to live in the moment--that quite literally defies both logic and time. A love story without borders that reflects the best of our modern world. Praise for Hello Now: * "Babbitt's Tuck Everlasting revised as a passionate YA love story, this is an exquisitely told romantic fantasy, golden yet lacerating." --BCCB, STARRED REVIEW

This text brings together the work of 15 elementary education experts who support an integrative approach to educating second language children. The paperback edition is a collection of articles from fourteen elementary education experts who espouse an integrative approach to second language education - one that goes beyond language teaching methodology - to cover a wide range of issues affecting the academic and social success of language minority children. The volume deals not only with second language development, but with the development of the whole child. Rather than focusing on language instruction, it addresses the entire curriculum, and instead of restricting itself to classroom learning, it examines the role of the school, family, and community.

Hello Now Ministerio de

Don Celestino is old
and bitter and afraid, an impossible man. An anarchist who has been in exile from his native Spain for more than twenty years, he lives with his daughter in Paris, but in his mind he is still fighting the Spanish Civil War. He
fulminates against the daily papers; he brags
about his past exploits.
He has become bigoted, self-important, and obsessed; a bully
to his fellow exiles and a tyrant to his daughter, Pascualita.
Then a family member

dies in Madrid and there is an inheritance to sort out. Pascualita wants to go to Spain,
which is supposedly opening up in response to the 1960s, and Don Celestino feels he has no choice but to follow.
He is full of dread and desire, foreseeing a heroic last
confrontation with his enemies, but what he encounters instead is a new commercialized Spain that has no time for the past, much less for him. Or so it seems.
Because the last act of Don Celestino's
dizzying personal
drama will prove that though "there is nothing serious . . . , there is tragedy." An astonishing modern
take on Don Quixote, Chaos and Night
untangles the ties between politics and paranoia, self-loathing

and self-pity, rage and remorse. It is the darkly funny final flowering of the art of Henry de Montherlant, a solitary and scarifying modern master whose work, admired by Graham Greene and Albert Camus, is sure to appeal to contemporary readers of Thomas Bernhard and Roberto Bolaño.

British and American Festivities Longman Bilingual Education in the 21st Century examines languages and bilingualism as individual and societal phenomena, presents program types, variables, and policies in bilingual education, and concludes by looking at practices, especially pedagogies and assessments. This thought-provoking work is an ideal textbook for future teachers as well as providing a fresh view of the subject for school administrators and policy makers. Provides an overview of bilingual education theories and practices throughout the world Extends traditional conceptions of bilingualism and bilingual education to include global and local concerns in the 21st century Questions assumptions regarding language, bilingualism and bilingual education, and proposes a new theoretical framework and alternative views of teaching and assessment practices Reviews international bilingual education policies, with separate chapters dedicated to US and EU language policy in education

Gives reasons why bilingual education is good for all children throughout the world, and presents cases of how this is being carried out

Recoge: Este informe analiza la estructura y organización de la evaluación de los centros educativos de primaria y secundaria con el objetivo de mejorar la calidad de los procesos de enseñanza-aprendizaje. Abarca todos los estados miembros de la UE, así como Islandia, Noruega, la Antigua República Yugoslava de Macedonia y Turquía. Compara los dos tipos principales de evaluación, la externa llevada a cabo por evaluadores que no son personal del colegio y la interna, desempeñada por los miembros del personal. También analiza los procedimientos concretos, el perfil de los evaluadores y el uso que se hace de los resultados de la evaluación.

This book presents the background to the current shift in language education towards action-oriented/action-based teaching, and provides a theorization of the Action-oriented Approach (AoA). It discusses the concepts and theories that paved the way for the AoA and explores their relevance for the way language education is conceived and implemented in the classroom. In the process, it revisits the concept of competence and discusses the dynamic notions of mediation and plurilingualism. The authors explain the way in which the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and its recent update, the CEFR Companion Volume, broaden the scope of language education, in particular in relation to the actional turn. The book provides scholars and practitioners with a research-informed description of the AoA, explains its implications for curriculum planning, teaching and assessment, and elaborates on its pedagogical implications.
