Back to Earth With a Bump Twinkl

From the illustrator of the #1 smash hit The Day the Crayons Quit comes an imaginative tale of friendship in a world where what makes us different isn't nearly as important as what makes us the same. When a boy discovers a single-propeller airplane in his closet, he does what any young adventurer would do: He flies it into outer space! Millions of miles from Earth, the plane begins to sputter and quake, its fuel tank on empty. The boy executes a daring landing on the moon . . . but there's no telling what kind of slimy, slithering, tentacled, fangtoothed monsters lurk in the darkness! (Plus, it's dark and lonely out there.) Coincidentally, engine trouble has stranded a young Martian on the other side of the moon, and he's just as frightened and alone. Martian, Earthling—it's all the same when you're in need of a friend.

"Introductions!" the man said with a kind smile. "I am King Enk, this is my kingdom - and you," he added with a flash of his dark eyes, "you are the one we have been waiting for, Cole." For as long as Cole can remember, he has always seemed very unimpressive next to his brother and sister. However, when a trip to his grandma's ancient house turns into the adventure of a lifetime, he is given a choice which makes him question everything that he thought he wanted. Hurlled into a strange place where even stranger creatures dwell and fierce powers are at play, Cole must find out where his own talents lie and put them to good use before time runs out. Follow Cole through the mousehole into Deriuss: a land where all you need is a little belief in yourself to unlock a world of magic.
