Image and Identity in the Ancient Near East: Papers in memoriam Pierre Amiet La lecture des pierres

The present volume is the work of 25 scholars who represent various specializations important to the study of the Qur'an, including Arabic language, comparative Semitic linguistics, paleography, epigraphy, history, rhetorical theory, hermeneutics, and Biblical studies. The starting point of this work was a series of five international conferences on the Qur'an at the University of Notre Dame over the academic year 2012-13, although the commentaries contributed during those conferences have been carefully edited to avoid repetition. Readers of The Qur'an Seminar Commentary will find that the 50 passages selected for inclusion in this work include many of the most important and influential elements of the Qur'an, including: - Q 1, al-Fatiha - Q 2:30-39, the angelic prostration before Adam - Q 2:255, the "Throne Verse" - Q 3:7, the mukhamat and mutashahhat - Q 4:3, polygamy and monogamy - Q 5:112-15, the table (al-ma'ida) from heaven - Q 9:29, fighting the People of the Book and the jizya - Q 12, the story of Joseph - Q 24:45, the "Light Verse" - Q 33:40, the "seal of the prophets" - Q 53, the "satanic verses" - Q 96, including the passage often described as the "first revelation" - Q 97, the "night of qadr" - Q 105, the "Companions of the Elephant" - Q 112, on God and the denial of a divine son. The collaborative nature of this work, which involves a wide range of scholars discussing the same passages from different perspectives, offers readers with an unprecedented diversity of insights on the Qur'anic text.

History of Archaeology: International Perspectives Archaeopress Publishing Ltd

This book explores Māori indigenous and non-indigenous scholarship corresponding with the term 'animism'. In addressing visual, media and performance art, it explores the dualisms of people and things, as well as 'who' or 'what' is credited with 'animacy'. It comprises a diverse array of essays divided into four sections: Indigenous Animacies, Atmospheric Animations, Animacy Hierarchies and Sensational Animisms. Cassandra Barnett discusses artists Terri Te Tau and Bridget Reweti and how personhood and hau (life breath) traverse art-taonga. Artist Natalie Robertson addresses kōrero (talk) with ancestors through photography. Janine Randerson and sound artist Rachel Shearer consider the sun as animate with mauri (life force), while Anna Gibb explores life in the algorithm. Rebecca Schneider and Amelia Jones discuss animacy in queered and raced formations. Stephen Zepke explores Deleuze and Guattari's animist hylozoism and Amelia Barikin examines a mineral ontology of art. This book will appeal to readers interested in indigenous and non-indigenous entanglements and those who seek different approaches to new materialism, the post-human and the anthropocene.

The Emotion of Polydore Marasquin Otto Harrassowitz Verlag

Sethys, Elka, Ruben, Haskan et Soramh, les cinq humains rassemblés par la force des choses, sont contraints d'accomplir la volonté des Dieux. Car la Déesse Végétale Nabathys et le Dieu Animal Hayvan ont besoin d'eux pour contrer la Déesse Minérale Sourka et sauver les espèces humaines en déclin. mais les épreuves se dressent, toujours plus nombreuses, sur leur chemin. Les querelles divines ébranlent le tableau-monde, les secrets se dévoilent, les pouvoirs se révèlent, et les rencontres au gré de leur voyage perturbent le groupe. Alors que les liens entre eux se compliquent, et que la Voix des Pierres devient plus claire, seront-ils capables de faire face aux impitoyables Mumaraïs, et aux codes de la société qui leur interdisent d'exister, pour accomplir leur destin ?

Cet ouvrage dévoile les plus belles pierres de l'exceptionnelle collection de Roger Caillois à travers des photographies inédites, réalisées en collaboration avec le Muséum national d'histoire naturelle de Paris (MNHN), qui a reçu en dation une grande partie de la collection. Essayiste, académicien, Roger Caillois se passionne très tôt pour les « pierres curieuses, qui attirent l'attention par quelque anomalie de leur forme ou par quelque bizarrerie significative de dessin ou de couleur ». Il aborde le monde minéral dans une vision toute personnelle où art et sciences naturelles font éclore une image nouvelle de l'univers. Ce parcours visuel de la collection de Roger Caillois s'accompagne de la réédition de ses célèbres textes : Pierres, L'Écriture des pierres et Agates paradoxales. Descriptifs, méditatifs, ces textes constituent un éloge de ces minéraux dont la lecture fait partager le ravissement qu'ils inspiraient à Roger Caillois.

The apparent self-sufficiency of joie de vivre means that, despite the widespread use of the phrase since the late nineteenth century, the concept has rarely been explored critically. Joie de vivre does not readily surrender itself to examination, for it is in a sense too busy being what it is. However, as the essays in this collection reveal, joie de vivre can be as complex and variable a state as the more negative emotions or experiences that art and literature habitually evoke. This volume provides an urgently needed study of an intriguing and under-explored area of French literature and culture from the Middle Ages to the contemporary era. While the range and content of contributions embraces linguistics, literature, art, sport and politics, the starting point is, like that of the term joie de vivre itself, in French language and culture. This volume will be of special interest to researchers across the full range of French studies, from literature and language to cultural studies. It will be of direct appeal to specialist readers, university libraries, graduate and undergraduate students, and general readers with a lively interest in French literature and culture of the medieval, early modern and broad modern periods. This book's fresh perspectives on the theme of joie de vivre and its relation to questions of privacy, contemplation, voyeurism, feasting and nationhood will also be of relevance to researchers in comparative and cognate disciplines.

La theorie et la pratique de la coupe des pierres et des bois, pour la construction des voutes et autres parties des bâtimens civils & militaires, ou Traité de stereotomie a l'usage de l'architecture BRILL

This book in two volumes gives the status quaestionis of the Qumran Copper Scroll, fifty years after its discovery. The first part of volume one, amply illustrated with graphics and images, gives the technical expertise of its state of preservation together with the proposals for treatment developed by the laboratory EDF-

Valectra for its restoration-conservation. The production of a facsimile by means of galvanoplasty and digitalized images is explained. The second part of volume one gives a largely renewed edition of the engraved Hebrew text with an up-to-date commentary, French and English translations, and indices. The second volume of nearly 400 plates publishes photographs and X-Rays of each segment before and after treatment, as well as the reproduction by means of galvanoplasty and digitalized images. The Gardener's Magazine and Register of Rural and Domestic Improvement Springer
