Many of the basics of the neuroscience of perception, memory, plasticity, attention, decisions, choices, and control have achieved consensus. Accordingly it is now possible to use this research to investigate the implications for cognition and behavior associated with language, multilingualism, and translation, as well as related phenomena such as semiosis and cross-cultural communication. We are "born to choose". Belief in one's ability to exert control over the environment through choice is essential to well-being. People desire both choice and control. Translation is an activity that instrumentalizes these functions.

Pai Lum Tao is a way of life for today's martial artist. Pai Lum Tao, the system taught by Dr. Daniel K. Pai, teaches you how to find harmony in life through cultivating a blend of martial arts mind, body and spirit. The body is stretched, strengthened and chiseled to meet the challenge of the White Dragon system. The mind is calmed with meditation exercises and chi kung. And the White Dragon system's philosophies, codes and formulas for health and wholeness enrich the spirit. The White Dragon system is not only a wholistic exercise - it is also a fighting system, one that has developed world champions including

Daniel K. Pai, Don "The Dragon" Wilson, Rusty Gray, James Wilson, Cynthia Rothrock and Glenn Wilson.

A chilling new world order is upon us . . . In the shifting desert sands of Egypt, rumours abound of a lost papyrus that will reveal the true purpose of the Pyramids of Giza. Could these ancient monoliths be the source of a new kind of energy, one that comes at no cost to the planet? CIA agent Curtis O'Connor and archaeologist Aleta Weizman are determined to find out. Close by, a shadowy and powerful group known as Pharos meets in Alexandria, its membership a closely guarded secret. Its first order of business: to orchestrate chaos on international financial markets with a series of spectacular terrorist attacks on the world's fossil-fuel supplies. And in Cairo, amid the anarchy of Tahrir Square, thieves have broken into the famed Museum of Antiquities and stolen one of the world's priceless artifacts: the mask of Tutankhamun. Is the audacious theft linked to the Pharos Group? Nimble weaving politics, history and science through a rip-roaring plot, from Afghanistan to Washington, Sydney to London, The Alexandria Connection is a spectacular and stylish ride. Praise for Adrian d'Hage's Novels 'A provocative book in which every sort of dogma is questioned and every preconceived idea turned on its head.' Sunday Mail 'A fast-paced and thrilling read.' West Australian Rational persuasion and appeal to an audience's emotions are elements of most literature, but they are found in their purest form in oratory. The speeches written by the Greek Orators for delivery in law-courts, deliberative councils and assemblies enjoyed an honoured literary status, and rightly so, for the best of them have great vitality.

The Alexandria Connection

Jack, stuck in a dead-end job and surrounded by dysfunctional relationships has just received some depressing news. Frank, his psychiatrist has told him that he has depression. But at least there's a little white pill for that. Meanwhile, Sophie, Jack's hooker roommate is bringing men back to the house for "dates" and his impulsive need for immediate gratification means he is leaving a trail of broken hearts and angry bosses in his wake. As his world continues to spiral out of control, a series of events will force Jack to look deeply at himself. Or else take enough mind-bending substances that he doesn't have to. "It's not the best thing you've written." Author's Mum "You should be ashamed of yourself." Letter from a publisher "We don't want to be associated with you." Mental Wellness Charity
